Pride and Professionalism

By Mike Kelly

Love is that condition in which the happiness of another person is essential to your own.

- Robert A. Heinlein

The last couple articles that I have written have had some biblical verses or inspiration. I think in this article we will talk about NOAH. I am sure every one of you has noticed, but just in case you haven't, it's time to build an ark. I don't think I have ever seen so much rain. We just don't seem to get a break. I bet we have been on cart path more this year than any other since Lane Tree opened. Today we are riding all but 2 holes and the forecast is for another 1" of rain tomorrow. So much for a time out. As I have been told, "If you don't like the weather in NC, stick around 10 minutes"

We have completed negotiations with the GPS company and have not come up with an amicable solution. They still want way too much money and we just can't afford it at this time. With that said, I regret that the GPS systems will be disappearing within the next 30 days. I realize this has been a nice feature, but the expense was just out of our reach. I will continue to search out others to see if we can come up with something better suited for Lane Tree and its members. Thanks for your understanding.

It's February and with February comes Valentine's day. If you want to make it to summer to enjoy really good golf, I would suggest that you don't forget this day. February 14 falls on a Sunday this year so we decided to have our Valentine's steak night on Saturday the 13th. Why not bring your loved one out for a fantastic steak dinner at your club house. I guarantee you won't regret or forget Lane Tree's steak. Make your reservations now.
