Pride and Professionalism

Praise youth and it will prosper. Irish Proverb

Again the young men and women of Lane Tree have made us proud.

Last Monday at Goldsboro Municipal, the Aycock Golden Falcons, which by the way, make Lane Tree their home course, shot their team lowest score of 322. Mitchell Langston led the charge shooting a 3 over par 75 and Bryce Jones shot just 3 strokes back. Both of these fine young men are not only stars on their school golf team, but they and their families are star members of Lane Tree.

Not to be outdone, Matt Hull, one of our employees, plus a star at Goldsboro High School, shot a 2 over par to lead his team to first place honors in a division 2-A match on the Ayden Country Club links the same day.

We would be remiss if we did not mention the two outstanding young lady members that I am sure we will be seeing some great scores.

Abby Sauls of Aycock and Lindsey Burton of Rosewood High both great golfers in their own right. . Good Luck girls.

Moving on, before I get lost in what it would be like to be young again, I would like to mention some things that I think need to be brought up.

The other day we had some out of town guest playing 18 holes. Some of our members, who played just behind them, got a little disturbed because OUR GUEST'S just didn't play as fast as they thought they should have. This time of year we get a lot of out of towners passing thru with the hopes of getting in some quality golf. Please, these people pay full price helping to offset your dues and deserve the courtesy that every good member can offer.

Spring is upon us so come on out and enjoy a round of golf.

HAPPY SPRING EVERYONE
